- Meeting officially opened at 7:30p.m.

- Paul Tacy (Building Inspector) submitted the annual report, and will e-mail the report to Bob Gazda, who will publish it to the town web site. See attached. Paul reported that there were no new houses built in Middlefield in 2008, but that he has been kept busy inspecting wood stoves and pellet stoves, and remodels. Middlefield has collected more fees than any of the other hilltowns, due to the construction of Azure Green with a total of $15,000 for 2008. Paul reported that he has not had any problems, and feels that communication has improved over the years. Discussions ensued concerning permits.
- Maureen Sullivan would like permission to clear space on the bulletin board in order to provide updates for the Agricultural Commission. Provided no objections were aired, the request was granted.
- Meeting officially adjourned at 8:10 p.m.
